PROTECTIVE ORDER

3 1. The above documents and related information are disclosed only for
4 purposes of and in connection with the defense of the underlying criminal action.
5 Defendants and his counsel may not make use of the documents and information for any
6 other purpose.

7 2. The information and documents shall not be disclosed to any person except:
8 a. counsel of record for the defendants,
9 b. employees of such counsel assigned to and necessary to assist such
10 counsel in the preparation of the defense in the underlying criminal
11 action;
12 c. witnesses or complainants only where necessary to refresh recollection
13 of the witness regarding witness's own prior written statements;
14 witnesses will not be allowed access to information contained in
15 statements of other witnesses or any information other than their own
16 prior written statement;
17 d. the Court.

18 3. Any person receiving any of the documents and information shall not reveal
19 or discuss such documents and information to or with any person who is not entitled to 20 receive such information under Paragraph 2 above.

21 4. Any papers filed or to be filed with the Court that append any of the 22 information, or make reference to the matters derived from any of the documents and 23 information, shall be filed under seal and held in confidence.

24 5. Within thirty (30) days after the termination of the above-captioned action, all
25 of the documents and all copies thereof, shall be returned to the Custodian of Records.

26 6. No action taken in compliance with this order shall operate as an admission

1 that any particular information is, or is not, admissible in evidence at the trial of this action.
2 Production by the custodian of records of the documents and information does not
3 constitute, nor is it to be construed as, a waiver of any privilege or evidentiary objection,
4 state or federal, that otherwise might have with respect thereto.
